
Paul Davis

PGZ Driver Training

2007

Paul Davis

Consultant

From 1995 until 2005 Paul was head of Driver Training and for Leicestershire Constabulary. He devised and ran driving courses at all levels for the Police service. He was an authorised DSA examiner and advanced police driving instructor / examiner. Paul was a former Chair of the East Midlands |Regional Police Driving Schools Conference and a long serving member of the National Police Driving Schools Conference, where he researched and reported on a variety of issues. With a colleague Paul designed and wrote the 2004 version of the National Police Driving Manual.

Since retiring from the Police Service Paul has continued in the driver training field working in the fleet and instructor training markets. He has also trained Highways Agency Traffic Officers, driving assessors and Serious and Organised Crime Agency staff.

Paul's qualifications are:-

- BTEC Higher Diploma in Police Driving Instruction (Level 4)
- Advanced Police Driving Instructor
- Advanced 1st class police driver
- Fast Roads Trainer
- McLean Associates Competency Based Assessors Award
- City & Guilds 7307 Further and Adult Education Teaching Certificate
- IOSH Risk Assessor
- DSA Grade 6 ADI

Paul designs and runs a variety of driving related courses and specialises in advanced driver training, training for the Fleet market, advising on collision investigation, from a drivers view point and advising on policy issues.